ARREST OF GAMBLERS .- On account of strict observance of the Sanday law in Wash ugton yesterday, numbers of persons from that city visited the county, some to get which v and some to gamble. Those in quest of the former had a hard time in finding it, but those intent on gaming succeeded in satisfying themselves to some extent. A party which had assembled near Little Falls to enjoy a little game became noisy and a row ensued; whereupon Sheriff Veitch sumnonet a posse and appeared upon the scene. Three colored and are white men were taken into custody and arraigned before Justice Birch, who imposed a fine upon each which was promptly paid and the deaquents discharged. Several other parties were chased, but made their escape by rossing the bridge, though it is believed that one man wat shot by the constables who were in pursuit.

THE OPERA HOUSE,-Mr. George Morton supported by a strong company, will appear benight at the Opera House in "His Siu," a play strong in dramatic situations and repiele with character acting.
